

Dance, jam and celebrate with . . . the DSY

The DSY is a rock 'n roll dance band which came together in 2002, playing contemporary and classic covers and originals in local bars and halls. Over time, the band has been requested to play weddings and events—so has gratefully embraced this new, on-demand audience.

Meet the band

The band is composed of four dedicated and talented guys. Ron Treem plays lead guitar and is accompanied by song writer and vocalist John Lanza on drums, Pete Collier on keyboards and vocalist Richard Whitehead on bass.

PETE COLLIER

Keyboard

Pete has an eclectic musical background and jumped at the chance to play rock 'n roll. He keeps busy playing with DSY and a local Celtic band, Old Sam Peabody.

RON TREEM

Lead guitar, vocals, song writing.

Ron has a long music history of playing solo acoustically and lead in groups since high school and college days. His passion is for the blues and mentoring kids in music.

JOHN LANZA

Drums, vocals, song writing.

John has worked with numerous bands in the New York and New Jersey area as both drummer and lead singer. The popular Sunhouse Band, featuring John on the drums, performed regularly in New York City clubs such as the Café Wha, Kenny's castaway and the Back Fence. John's song writing and vocals adds to the talented and creative mix.

RICHARD WHITEHEAD

Bass, vocals.

Richard hails from England with a musical career spanning two continents. He provides the driving pulse of the group with creative energy. The newest addition, Richard brought all of the pieces together.
